DEFINITION OF FULL POLICY SURRENDER

In order for you to make an informed decision, we have shown the definition of a Full Policy Surrender.

Full Policy Surrender - A full policy surrender will terminate the entire policy contract. Upon full surrender any outstanding loan balance and applicable surrender charges will be deducted from the GROSS CASH VALUE. The policyowner will then receive the NET CASH VALUE, if any. Once the policy has been voluntarily surrendered, the Company WILL NOT reinstate the contract. NOTE: Not all types of insurance accumulate cash value. Completion of this form DOES NOT GUARANTEE that a cash value will be payable to the policyowner.

A. REQUEST FOR FULL POLICY SURRENDER

Please check below to request Full Policy Surrender

- ☐ Full Policy Surrender - The undersigned requests that the listed policy be surrendered, and any available NET CASH VALUE be paid to the policyowner. The undersigned understands that upon receipt of this request for full surrender, the Company's obligation for any insurance under the listed policy(ies) shall thereupon immediately cease. The only liability the Company will have under the listed policy(ies) will be for such cash surrender value that may exist at the time this form shall be received in the Company's home office.

The undersigned understands that if surrender charges are waived in connection with this surrender, such waiver shall terminate all rights under the policy held by the policyowner or any other person or entity and will be in full settlement, release and discharge of all claims arising directly or indirectly under the policy, whether contractual or extra-contractual and all contracts issued as a supplement to it. Section 1542 of the California Civil Code provides that a general release does not extend to claims which a creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him must have materially affected his settlement with the debtor. If applicable, the undersigned agrees (i) that the provisions of Section 1542 are hereby knowingly and voluntarily waived and relinquished and (ii) that the provisions of all similar federal or state laws, rights, rules or legal principles of any other jurisdiction, to the extent that they are found to be applicable herein, are also hereby knowingly and voluntarily waived and relinquished. In connection with this release, the undersigned acknowledges that they are aware that they may hereafter discover claims presently unknown or unsuspected, or facts in addition to or different from those which they now know or believe to be true with respect to the matters released herein. Nevertheless, if surrender charges are waived, it is the intention of the undersigned to fully, finally and forever settle and release all such matters and all claims relating thereto, which exist, hereafter may exist, or might have existed. The above release language shall be unenforceable if surrender charges are not waived or if the listed policy is not subject to surrender charges.

B. FEDERAL INCOME TAX WITHHOLDING/IRS CERTIFICATION

Per Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requirements, any taxable portion of your full policy surrender distribution is subject to federal income tax withholding, unless you elect otherwise. If you elect NOT to have withholding apply, or if you do not have enough federal income tax withheld, you are still responsible for payment of federal income tax. You may incur penalties under the Estimated Tax Rules if the withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. NOTE: Withholding is automatic if no election is made.

MAINE

Important information about your life insurance policy Prepared by the Maine Bureau of Insurance

Life insurance is a critical part of a broader financial plan. There are many options available, and you have the right to shop around and seek advice from different financial advisors in order to find the option best suited to your needs.

You are encouraged to consider the following possible alternatives to requesting a surrender of your life insurance policy, requesting accelerated death benefits under your life insurance policy, or letting your life insurance policy lapse. These alternatives include, but are not limited to:

- Accelerated Death Benefit: Your policy may provide an early or accelerated discounted benefit payment if you have a terminal or chronic illness.
- Cash Surrender: Your policy may have a cash surrender value that your life insurer would pay you if you cancel it.
- Gift: You may be able to give your policy to your beneficiary, who would then assume responsibility for paying premiums.
- Life Settlement: You may be able to sell your life insurance policy to a third party for an amount greater than the cash surrender value or accelerated death benefits under your policy. Once sold, you would pay no further premiums. The third party would become the policyholder and receive the benefit upon the insured's death.
- Maintain Your Policy: You may be able to maintain your life insurance policy in force by paying the premiums directly or using your current policy values to pay the premiums.
- Policy Changes: You may be able to reduce or eliminate future premium payments by obtaining a paid-up policy, by reducing optional coverages, or through other options available from your life insurer.
- Policy Loan: You may be able to take out a loan from your life insurance company using the cash value of your policy as collateral. Loan proceeds can be used to pay the premiums or for other purposes.
- Third-Party Loan: You may be able to get a loan from another party to pay your policy's premiums. In return, the lender may require an assignment of a portion or all of the policy's death benefits.

These options may or may not be available depending on your circumstances and the terms of your life insurance policy. Please see your policy or contact your life insurance company, financial adviser, agent, or broker to determine your particular options.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: Maine law requires life settlement brokers to have a proper license. If you are approached to sell your policy or if you are looking to sell your policy, please check with the Maine Bureau of Insurance for a list of licensed life insurance producers. If you are a Maine resident and have questions about life insurance and your rights, contact the Maine Bureau of Insurance at 1-800-300-5000, or go to www.maine.gov/pfr/insurance. Ask questions if you don't understand your policy.
